BASIC HIMO'S KIT – HIMO'S SKILL SET

1. From Left to Right is:

1. Ultimate: Himoes can perform this skill when their Rage fully regenerated.
2. Technique: Himoes can perform this skill after 4 normal attacks.
3. Passive 1: Usually describe himo's core passive skills.
4. Passive 2: Usually describe himos extra passive skills.
5. Passive 3: Bonus stats when reached required Ascension Tier and Aura skill.

2. Indepth Review:

1. Ultimate:

- Guarantee stunned and its DMG cannot be dodge.
- Multi-hit skill and each wave has 100% to stun all enemies, nearly impossible to immune.
- With 10 [Burst Power] stacks holding when perform Ultimate, Saitama has very decent chance to execute 1 lowest HP backline enemy if that target's health is too low because the DMG is based on Saitma's Max HP .

⇒ Provides guarantee crowd control effect to ALL ENEMIES and can also be used as execution tool if enemy backline is too low.

2. Technique:

- Turns him into an outstanding Healer when he can heal your Main & Sub DMG dealers and out heal any support at the moment.
- Also a cleanse skill which affected himself + Main & Sub DMG dealers. Very handy.
- Can share DMG taken with highest ATK ally.

⇒ A skill makes Saitama become both enabler (cleanse debuffs and crowd control + DMG shared) and healer (heals a ton based on % Max HP for 6s).

3. Passives:

- Has so many tools to out-sustain other full tank heroes.
- Also makes him the most tanky unit for battle under 20s.
- Serious Mode is a double-edged blade, you will need to be careful choosing how to build Saitama and which is his ideal allies.
- You can turn him into a Burst DMG hero because his overall DMG output can increase easily when replacing all tanky gears with bursty gears (Passive 2).

⇒ This will help Saitama become flexible with builds, you can choose:

- + A pure healer build with supportive soul jades to out-heal your opponents while still having many tools to increase DMG reduction.
- + An off-tank build with rage reduction and many crowd control effects to disable your enemies' action.
- + A full tank build to out-sustain and can still heal a lot to make sure your DMG dealers won't die easily.

4. Exclusive Weapon:

- Gives even better defensive stats for himself.
- Deal more DMG and also provide immunity to crowd control and rage reduction for allies if can perform Ultimate constantly.
- Even gives invincible status and tons HP restoration to help your team maneuver sticky situation and having more chance winning.
- Also increases Fixed DMG Output, Fixed DMG Resist for the whole team when receiving fatal DMG, a very handy bonus for competitive PvP.

OPTIMIZING HIMO'S PLAYSTYLE:

Just like every other Blazing Tier unit. Saitama's power relies most from his stats and bonus passive stats (Mostly are his Max HP and Block Rate). But he is a huge impenetrable wall if you can ascend to E4 or above with lots of passive bonus HP stats stacked up from many other resources. It will turn him into a crazy tank that can out-heal and support, out-sustain any tank with tons of DMG and guarantee return back to enemies after casting Ultimate. A very critical unit for competitive PvP.

1. And his playstyle will be around these kind of Noble Phantasm below:

- Pure Healer: Avalon:

Very straight forward because of Bonus Healing and Shielding with Saitama's ATK Value, also increases Crit Rate and Crit DMG to shielded allies. Also not recommended because this NP only focusing into utility while Saitama needs to be tanky.

- Hybrid support: Excalibur

A balanced build that helps Saitama become more flexible with comp building: Provide even more Soul Armor & %Max HP to Support & Warrior units but still help increase Mage & Assassin units Bonus Crit Rate & Crit DMG after performing Ultimate. Ideally to use when doing a 3 warriors comp.

- Full Tank Support: Rho Aias

A fucking annoying Full Tank build that helps neglects nearly almost incoming DMG when triggering every buff possible. Also provides a bonus of 10% Fixed DMG Resist for 15 secs everytime Saitama successfully blocks an attack!

Imagine Sukuna become useless with his Ultimate when ulting a Saitama who is activating Rho's [Suppression] and also healing a ton with his Technique skill. Sukuna will become a worthless unit if Saitama equips fully geared up Rho Aias. Or constantly blocked Lelouch's missiles and keeps healing allies up like it was nothing big deal.

Rho Aias gives the most abilities and chances to help you changing the course of current battle for a significant better Win Rate.

- Annoying off-tank: Sword of Rupture

Very suitable with constant Rage regeneration & Ult spamming comp. You can run a team with 3 – 4 heroes with abilities to do AoE Ultimate and constantly silence your enemies with Silence Soul Jade if you are always the one who can Ult first.

- Nuker: Rule Breaker > Crimson Lotus Saintress > Noname Dagger

Saitama's Ultimate can consume [Burst Power] stacks to deal Fixed DMG but its potential is very limited to abuse Lotus NP due to Saitama's lack of bonus passive crit.

And while his Ultimate is fullscreen and attacks every enemy, Rule Breaker will benefit it the most if you want a Nuker Saitama.

Noname is very hard to use AF, do not make me explain it again.

2. Soul Jade: I will tell you the core ones and optional ones.

Core: Tenacity – Silence

Optional for healer: Purify > Cure > Swift > Guardian > Regeneration > Dodge

Optional for nuker: Crit > Strength > Enrage > Blade

Optional for tanker: Purify > Regeneration > Guardian > Cure > Dmg
Reflection > Dodge

Using Saitama meaning you are using an All-in-One hero. He packed with: Crowd control; Healing effect; Enablers buffs; Highly Execution Potential;.... to use for both stalling comp or bursting comp against. That means having a strong, properly built Saitama = having upper hand in PvP.

Saitama's healing is very significant if she is in frontline and can block as many attacks as possible due to his healing and DMG reduction bonus from him passives and Technique. And yes, to make that healing amount become huge, you will need tons of Flat HP, Bonus %HP & Bonus %Max HP to maximize his healing rate.

You will not need to care much about Saitama's ATK when you aiming for full tank Build because having another heavy healer is the key to outperform your opponent.

⇒ Ideal way to play Saitama is using Excalibur for 2 – 3 warriors comp and most gay way is Sword of Rupture and adjust Saitama's ATK into 2nd highest in your team.

3. Cloth: Saitama is a very straight forward utility supports and relying mostly from him blockrate & DMG reduction so I will keep it simple:

Scorpio > Libra > Gemini > Taurus

- Saitama's survivalbility depends mostly on increase him Max HP as much as possible and who is your other Supports.
- You will use him as a full tank and pair with a powerful off-tank most of the time so: survivalbility always the most prior for Saitama.
- Scorpio is for DMG Reflect Soul Jade build and huge HP stacked up ofcourse.

- But Libra is a more safety choice if you are running full tank Saitama. Because Survivability for Utility unit like Saitama always > Offensive skill.
- Saitama can spam Ult pretty many times per battle so Gemini somehow is a very effective choice if you wanna play offensive.

4. Allies: Focusing on any allies with ability to deal Fixed DMG and grants Fixed DMG Res buff:

Core: Shadow – Mai – Rem – Lux – Kurisu in AST Slot.

Optional: Rimuru – Vergil – Makima – Rin – Madoka – Sebas in AST Slo.
